ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

A Change in Administration

Mr. James Salisbury

To the Seniors:

Another school year has drawn to a close leaving many fond memories for one to cherish for a lifetime. I hope each one of you has learned something of value from McComb School that will make you a better person than when you started your education.

You are now entering a time of your life when you will have to make use of all the tools of knowledge the teachers have tried to instill. I wish you every success in unlocking the wide open door of opportunity.

Mr. James Salisbury
Superintendent

Principals Lead the Way

Mr. Carl Martens, High School

Mrs. Frances Hickey, Elementary

Mr. William Tatham, Junior High

President-John Zernhel, Vice-President-Dale Gangle, Robert Shafer.

The board of education is composed of five members elected by the community on odd-numbered years for a four year term. Its purpose is to provide the best possible education for students of the community. It has numerous responsibilities among which are: the selection of a superintendent, the establishment of policies and procedures, the adoption of projects, the overseeing of financing the school's acquisitions and development of necessary equipment and supplies, the appointing of personnel and appraisal of their work, and the adoption of plans for improvement and expansion.

SENIORS

The Class of 1969

Being a senior means knowing everything there is to know. Hand-painted portraits, the best seats in the auditorium, and everybody in one big homeroom is associated with a senior. A senior may experience a moment of nostalgia at the last pep session, on a last bus ride, or at the Jr.-Sr. Prom. Most of all, being a senior is realizing that you have had twelve years of learning to prepare for a future that could be unequaled.

JUNIORS

President-Ron Williamson, Vice-President-Steve George, Treasurer-John Harden, Historian-Steve Hoover, Reporter-Glen Agner, Secretary-Ellen Ferrell.

An honest-to-goodness-true-blue junior will have to admit that he's out to beat the seniors at anything! Winning the spirit stick, selling more Christmas cards than ever before, and throwing the greatest prom ever is being a junior. A junior thinks he can get away with a little bit more sass and a little bit less homework--until he tries it too often. Juniors look forward to next year when they, too, can kiss textbooks good-bye.

SOPHOMORES

President-Bob Foltz, Historian-Paula Smith, Secretary-Jane Augsburger, Vice-President-Dave Benroth, Treasurer-Marsha Rader.

Sophomores spend some of their time jeering at freshmen. At times, they're experiencing a bit of envy for every junior and a smidgen of respect for the graduating seniors. Mr. Lucas shudders when they sign up for Driver Education and Mr. Bassitt beams when they win a reserve basketball game. Sophomores are especially pleased to know that English and American History are the only required courses next year!

FRESHMEN

Class of 1972

A freshman has quite a time keeping his mind on studies in study hall and off the activities out the window. In particular, freshmen are happiest the last day of school when they realize that when the last bell rings, they're almost officially SOPHOMORES!

The 1968 McComb Panther squad closed their season with a record of 3 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie. Although we had some trying encounters, the boys' fine spirit and good team sport never let us down. Our thanks to the coaches for a fine season.

We were proud to have two boys make the All-Conference first team, Joe Bryan and Butch Myers. On the second team we placed Tom Shoemaker and Lynn Newcomer. Jerry Wolford and Dan Hickey made honorable mention. We think this is a good showing for our school.

Wrestling's Most Successful Season

For our third year of interscholastic wrestling a 4-7 season record would have to be considered a success. In addition, placing a close second behind a strong Arcadia team in the first Hancock County Tournament was a major accomplishment.

However, the real climax of the season must be finishing seventh among fourteen Class A and AA teams in the strong Findlay Sectional Tournament. Paul Fletcher, Marion Haley, and Charles Insley ranked fourth in their respective weight classes in this tourney while Mick Mull scrapped his way to a second and a berth to the Toledo District Tournament.

Congratulations, team! We're looking forward to an even better fourth season.

Members of the Student Council are the presidents, vice-presidents, and secretaries of each class. Student Council members are in charge of Homecoming activities and the annual Christmas Dance. With the money earned through the sale of magazines and other projects, special assembly programs are presented to the students at strategic intervals throughout the school year. Thank you, Student Council, for a year we'll always remember!

. . . and there were games.

Why aren't you dancing?

Merry Christmas Everyone

Seniors set the scene, juniors provided the games, sophomores did the refreshing and all those teeny-tiny freshmen proved their power by cleaning it all up!

Teachers and students alike danced to the romantic beat of the Mach Four in a Christmas-tree lit gymnasium from eight to eleven on December 23. The legend, "Merry Christmas" covering the score board, reminded everyone that Christmas had come again.

This is no time to take pictures!

We Made It All Possible

A sales staff member is a modified version of a production staff member. The latter cuts, fits, figures, and sells while the sales staff member limits his time to selling ads in summer and subscriptions in winter. In order to produce a bigger and better yearbook, production meetings were held weekly from November to March, with occasional last minute-ers for those dreaded deadlines. The entire annual staff hopes you will be considerate in your inevitable criticisms, because practice makes perfect and we've only had a year's practice!

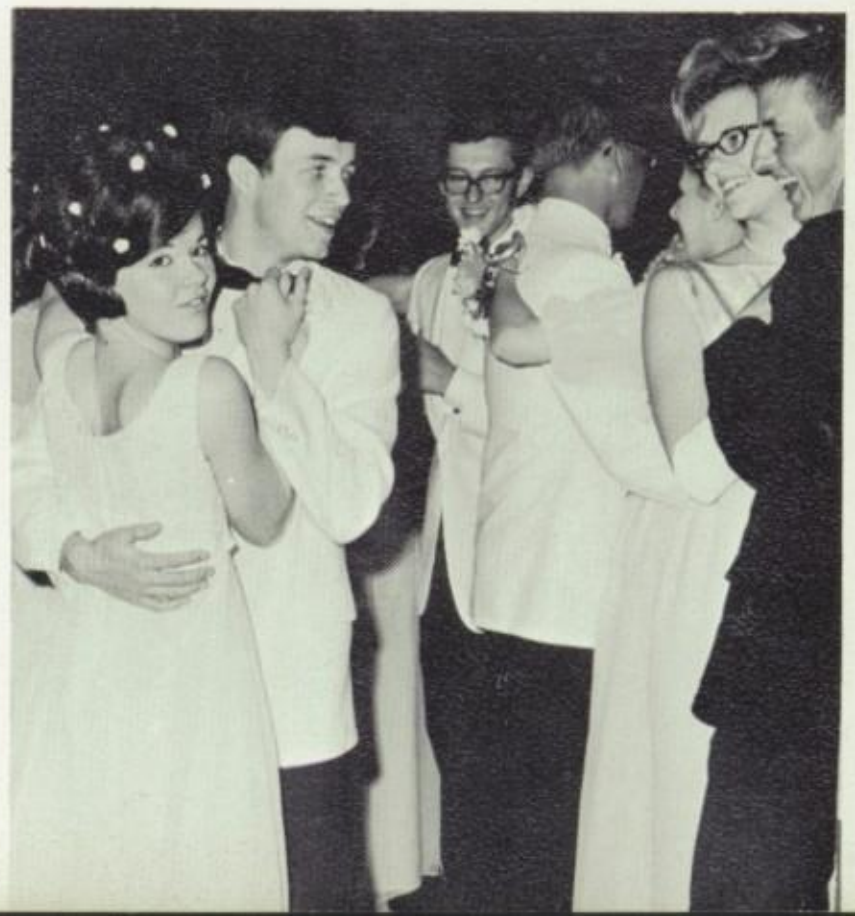
Hey! This was supposed to be candid.

One last look

What's so interesting, Nance?

What's the big joke?



Congratulations to the Juniors for the fine 1968 Junior-Senior Prom. Based on the theme "Some Enchanted Evening," the gymnasium was transformed into a French-type sidewalk cafe.

Red-checked tableclothes, candle-lit tables, and streetlights that gave off a hazy, red glow created a truly enchanting evening as couples danced to the music of the Phil McClurkin Trio.

Post-prom activities included putt-putt, a drive-in movie, and the challenge to stay awake all night.

Thanks again, Juniors, for a prom that will never be beat.

BUYERS of ALFALFA HAY

DESHLER, OHIO

Life without knowledge is like trying to play tic-tac-toe with the wrong grid—You can't win.

Congratulations to those graduating in the Class of 1969. You're on the winning grid.

The rest of the student body has good reason to work for good grades and a diploma.

WE WANT WINNERS
